

Mylan to Sponsor PGA TOUR's Nationwide Tour Event at Southpointe Golf Club in Early September

PITTSBURGH, Dec 17, 2009 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ -- Mylan Inc. (Nasdaq: MYL) today announced that it will sponsor a PGA TOUR Nationwide Tour event -- the Mylan Classic -- at Southpointe Golf Club in the Pittsburgh suburb of Canonsburg in 2010.

Mylan Chairman and CEO Robert J. Coury said: "We are extremely proud to sponsor the Mylan Classic right here in our own backyard at the Southpointe Golf Club in Canonsburg. This sponsorship is very compatible with our longstanding charitable commitments to the communities where Mylan operates, and it's another great example of an event that will have a significant and positive impact on the region in which it is held. In addition, it is an excellent value proposition for all of our employees and other stakeholders around the world. We look forward to working with the PGA TOUR, the Washington County Chamber of Commerce and the Golf Club to ensure a highly successful leg of the Tour that will bring additional national and international attention to Mylan and the Pittsburgh area."

The 72-hole stroke-play event will be played Sept. 2-5, 2010, and feature 156 players. Making a positive impact on the communities where PGA TOUR tournaments are held is supportive of the golf organization's charitable mission. The PGA TOUR relies on more than 80,000 volunteers a year to run its events, and nearly all of the 100-plus tournaments -- including the Mylan Classic -- are structured as non-profit organizations that donate 100% of event net proceeds to local charities.
